Terms & Conditions

Third Party Activities

- Soulpath acts only as an organiser and/or agent in arranging such Activities. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law: Soulpath expressly excludes and disclaims any and all liability for any loss, damage, injury, illness, death, cost or expense (including emergency evacuation and medical expenses), whether direct, indirect, consequential or punitive, arising out of or in connection with the provision, standard, safety or performance of the Activities by third-party suppliers. All claims arising from or relating to the Activities must be brought directly against the relevant third-party supplier and/or its insurers. Soulpath shall have no obligation to defend, settle or indemnify such claims. Customers must comply with all instructions, safety rules and conditions imposed by third-party suppliers. Failure to comply may result in refusal of service by the supplier and Soulpath shall not be liable for any resulting loss or additional costs.

Customer Waiver & Indemnity

- By booking the tour, the customer (and/or on behalf of any persons for whom they book) acknowledges and agrees that: They voluntarily assume all risks associated with participation in the Activities, including but not limited to risks of personal injury, illness, property damage and death. They release, waive and discharge Soulpath, its officers, directors, employees, agents and affiliates (collectively, the "Released Parties") from any and all claims, demands, causes of action, liabilities, losses and expenses (including legal fees) arising from or connected with participation in the Activities, to the fullest extent permitted by law. They shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Released Parties from and against any and all claims, liabilities, losses, damages and expenses (including reasonable legal fees) arising out of:
- (a) their participation in any Activity;
- (b) their failure to comply with supplier instructions or to disclose relevant medical conditions; or
- (c) any act or omission of the customer or persons for whom they book.

Age, Fitness & Medical Declarations

- Soulpath does not recommend participation in boat rides, island-hopping, adventure sports, or other physically demanding Activities for customers aged 50 years or older, pregnant persons, or anyone with pre-existing medical conditions that could be aggravated by such Activities.
- Customers aged 50 or above, pregnant persons, or those with medical conditions must disclose such conditions at time of booking and may be required to provide a physician's clearance or sign a medical declaration. If any supplier permits participation despite such disclosure, participation is at the customer's sole risk.
- Soulpath is not responsible for medical care, evacuation, repatriation, or additional costs resulting from participation by customers who are unfit to participate.

Limitations of Liability & Remedies

- To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, Soulpath's aggregate liability to the customer for any claim arising out of or related to the tour (whether in contract, tort, statute or otherwise) shall be limited to the total amount paid by the customer to Soulpath for the relevant tour or INR 100,000, whichever is lower.
- Under no circumstances shall Soulpath be liable for any indirect, incidental, special, punitive or consequential damages, including loss of profits, loss of enjoyment or emotional distress.

Severability & Governing Law

- If any provision of these clauses is held invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect. These terms are governed by and shall be construed in accordance with the laws of India. Any dispute arising out of or in connection with these terms shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts located in Ahmedabad, Gujarat, India.

Terms & Conditions

Travel Insurance — Recommendation, Requirement & Waiver

- Soulpath strongly recommends and, where specified in the tour itinerary or booking confirmation, requires that all customers purchase comprehensive travel insurance prior to travel that covers, at minimum, medical expenses (including emergency evacuation and repatriation), personal accident, trip cancellation and curtailment, and loss or theft of baggage and personal effects.
- Where Soulpath requires travel insurance, customers must provide proof of valid insurance covering the full duration of the tour at least 7 days prior to departure (or earlier if specified). Soulpath reserves the right to refuse boarding, participation in Activities, or continuation of services where acceptable proof of insurance is not provided; any costs or losses arising from such refusal shall be the customer's sole responsibility.
- If Soulpath does not make travel insurance mandatory, Soulpath nevertheless strongly insists that customers obtain comprehensive travel insurance. If a customer declines to purchase travel insurance, the customer must acknowledge and accept, by signing the booking form or checking the applicable box during online booking, that they have been advised to obtain travel insurance and that Soulpath shall not be liable for any claims, losses, expenses, medical costs, evacuation costs, or other liabilities that would have been covered by travel insurance.
- By booking, customers warrant that any travel insurance they purchase is valid, provides adequate cover for the Activities in the itinerary, and remains in force for the duration of travel. Customers shall be responsible for filing claims with their insurers; Soulpath accepts no responsibility for insurers' decisions or delays.
- Customers shall indemnify and hold Soulpath harmless from and against any claims, losses, liabilities or expenses (including legal fees) arising from the customer's failure to obtain, maintain, or produce proof of travel insurance.

Acceptance of Terms

- By proceeding with a booking, the customer acknowledges that they have read, understood and agree to be bound by these Terms & Conditions, including all clauses relating to third-party suppliers, assumptions of risk, waivers, indemnities, age/fitness disclosures, travel insurance requirements, and limitations of liability.
- The customer further acknowledges that by clicking "Book", "Confirm" or any equivalent booking button, signing the booking form, booking offline, or making any payment (partial or full) towards a booking, they accept these Terms & Conditions on their own behalf and on behalf of any persons for whom they make a booking.
